TEMPLE-CUP BASE-BALL.

Baltimore Defeats Boston in a Listless Game.

WORCESTER, MASS., October 7.—The Boston and Baltimore National League teams played here to-day. The game was not exactly the sort to make the rooter grow enthusiastic, being only an exhibition game, and played rather listlessly. Nevertheless, some sharp playing was done, and the 3,500 spectators enjoyed the exhibition. Both teams indulged in hard hitting. Hickman, who pitched for Boston, led in that respect, getting a home run and a three-bagger, in addition to a single. Hughey Jones, when in the lineup, stepped to the plate in the second inning, was presented with a gold-headed cane by Holy-Cross College students. The two teams play tomorrow in Springfield. #### TROTTING AT LEXINGTON.

LEXINGTON, KY., October 7.—The Transylvania Stakes for trotting, of ten cranks, and at the end of the fifth heat was still unfinished on account of the darkness. The track was good, but not fast. Only one event on the card was finished, the 2:14 class for pacers. The third race, the 2:20 class for trotters, went over to Friday, after Astell and Alvea, driven by Astell and Allerton, respectively, had each won a heat.

In the first heat of the Transylvania ten horses scored down, and on the fifth attempt they were sent away to a good start, with Rilla in the lead and Bush second. The latter made a break around the first turn and fell back, leaving the light between Rilla and the Monk. The race was close both horses going under the wire on a run. The judges awarded the heat to the Monk, Rilla being second, and Tommy Britton third.
In the second heat the scoring was tedious, owing to the bad action of Rose Turner. Bush led until the stretch was reached, when the Monk took the lead, winning somewhat easily from the Alcyone mare. Rilla was third.
The third heat saw Bush away in the lead, and she was never headed. Rilla was second and Tommy Britton third.
The fourth heat was a surprise, as atter Bush had opened up a gap of ten lengths, Tommy Britton came in with a rush in the stretch, winning in a drive from the Monk, with Bush third.
The fifth heat Rilla was leading, with the outsiders, Black Heath and Janie Shelton, second and third, respectively.
The race was then postponed until tomorrow.

DRIVER HURT.
In the third heat Pat, Watson and The Monk collided on the first turn, and the driver of the former was thrown, throwing Gary out, injuring him considerably, but not seriously. Before the heat Rilla was sold for $50 and the field for $20. When Tommy Britton and Bush had each finished in front the field sold for $20 and Tommy Britton $20. Summary:
